

Build or Tumble?

Print and cut out the cards below. Do the scenarios build a tower, or make it fall?

A friend keeps a promise they made to you.

Someone tells the truth, even when it's hard.

A friend listens when you share your feelings.

Someone keeps a private thought or secret safe.

A friend asks before borrowing something special.

Someone helps fix a problem they caused.

Someone says, "I hurt your feelings. How can I make it right?"

A sibling admits they made a mistake and apologizes.

A classmate includes someone who feels left out.

A friend stands up for you when someone is teasing.

Build or Tumble?

Print and cut out the cards below. Do the scenarios build a tower, or make it fall?

A friend shares something private without permission.

Someone breaks a promise and pretends it didn't matter.

A sibling blames you for something they did.

A friend laughs when you make a mistake.

Someone excludes another child from a game on purpose.

A classmate takes something without asking.

Someone tells a lie to avoid getting in trouble.

A friend says something hurtful in front of others.

Someone ignores another person's feelings after causing hurt.

A child tears down someone else's block tower for fun.